

LOCULTO RUEDA VERDEJO

TECHNICAL SHEET

Denomination of Origin Ribera Del Duero

Town: Pesquera de Duero (Valladolid)

Variety: 100% Verdejo

Cold pre-fermentation at 12° and fermentation at a controlled mild temperature.

HISTORY

It has been clear that the dry white wines from Northwest Spain have a potential thanks to the Verdejo grape variety.

The family has been working for the D.O. RUEDA appellation, nearby the D.O. Ribera del Duero Appellation which is the origin of great fine quality whites, with their own personality and character, characteristics we are aiming always for the LOCULTO wine.

ELABORATION

Wine made with 100% Verdejo grapes from our vineyards in the D.O. Rueda Appellation. Mechanized night harvest. Fermentation controlled at 12 °.

TASTING NOTES

Straw yellow with green hues. Citrus on the nose, grated grapefruit, tropical fruits, pineapple and herbs such as fennel. In the mouth it has a slow and silky mid palate with acidity marked and pleasant and a finish with bitter touches that strengthen the depth of wine.
